Stegeman Coliseum

Georgia volleyball has called Stegeman Coliseum home since the 2017 season. Due to ongoing renovations to Stegeman Coliseum, the Bulldogs will play most of their home matches in 2023 at Ramsey Student Center, its previous home from 1995 to 2017.

Christened in 1964 as the Georgia Coliseum, the venue was officially renamed and dedicated to the memory of Herman James Stegeman on Saturday, March 2, 1996. Stegeman made many contributions to Georgia's athletic program during his 20-year tenure (1919-39). He was a pioneer in the development of college basketball in the south, originating the region's first big basketball tournament when he organized the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta from 1921-32. Stegeman Hall on the UGA campus was named for Coach Stegeman in 1946 and, for years, it was home of the University's athletic and physical education departments. The athletic department moved its offices to the new coliseum in 1964, and Stegeman Hall was demolished in 1995 following completion of the Ramsey Student Center for Physical Activities.

The Coliseum is actually two separate structures, the roof and the building beneath it. The only connections are aluminum bellows which seals the joints and permits the rise and fall of the roof with temperature change.

Stegeman has undergone thorough renovations in the last few years, receiving a 21st Century face lift. When fans arrived during the 2017 season, they walked in to the final product following more than $20 million in renovations over the past several years.

That summer, the arena received a massive center-hung video board, new black seats, an improved LED lighting system, a state-of-the-art sound system, and graphics above the horseshoe end celebrating past teams and retired jerseys. That followed work in the summer of 2016 which provided a dramatic mural covering the Coliseum's distinctive end wall.

In 2010, Stegeman's concourses received a similar makeover, upgrading the graphics, enhancing spectator access to concessions and restrooms and adding 5,000 square feet of concourse space on each side of the arena. Those efforts won awards from both the American Institute of Architects and the Illuminating Engineering Society of North America.

Stegeman Coliseum was utilized for rhythmic gymnastics and preliminary volleyball competition during the Centennial Olympic Games in 1996.

Ramsey Student Center

Georgia's $40 million Bernard B. and Eugenia A. Ramsey Student Physical Activities Center is where the Georgia Bulldogs volleyball team is housed. One of the nation's largest on-campus facilities for recreation and fitness, the Ramsey Center features a three-court volleyball arena and amenities, all utilized by the Bulldogs for practices. The Ramsey Center encompasses 440,000 square feet - UGA's Sanford Stadium could fit inside the center's more than five-acre footprint - and the variety offered is as vast as the area covered. Four gymnasia, three swimming pools, seven group fitness studios, climbing and bouldering walls, an indoor challenge course, 10 racquetball courts, two international squash courts, two strength and conditioning rooms, four cardiovascular overlooks, a one-eighth-mile indoor track, equipment checkout and Pro Shop, an outdoor equipment rental, and resource center are all available under one roof.

The first volleyball match played in the Ramsey Center was on September 22, 1995. Prior to playing in the Ramsey Center, the Bulldogs' home volleyball matches were held in the Women's Physical Education Building. With a seating capacity of 1,925, the Ramsey Center Volleyball Arena produces a lively environment featuring the Redcoat Pep Band, UGA cheerleaders, and Georgia mascot Spike!

During the summer of 2009, new additions were added to the volleyball area of the Ramsey Center with the program's coaches moving into new offices along with the addition of a theatre-style team video and scouting room, a new athletic training room, a new visitor's locker room and a lounge that features a sitting area and nutrition station.

Named the best recreational facility in the country by Sports Illustrated in 1997, the Ramsey Center is a constant reminder of the University of Georgia's commitment to athletic excellence and the realization of what is required to achieve greatness.

The team video room, located in the coaches office suite, is an ideal location to break down film and hold team meetings.

Murals and wall graphics throughout the facility highlight the history of Georgia volleyball including All-Americans and All-SEC performers.

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

"Something for everyone." That's one way to describe the academic, athletic, and social experience at the University of Georgia. UGA is a leader among public universities nationally with a breadth and diversity of degree programs that rival any institution of higher learning. Various degree programs such as education, business, international affairs, journalism, math, and public administration rank among the best in the nation. With its top-notch facilities campus-wide, the University of Georgia is an ideal setting for anyone to pursue a world-class education.

The University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in the USA. On January 27, 1785--just two years after the Revolutionary War and still four years before George Washington's inauguration as our first President--the Georgia Legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia, making UGA the oldest chartered state university in the nation. More than 225 years later, Georgia still offers something for everyone.

THE CITY OF ATHENS

Universally known as one of the nation's premier college towns, Athens is the perfect marriage of campus and community. Broad Street is all that separates the University of Georgia's historic North Campus and a vibrant downtown community filled with restaurants and shopping. Athens has carved its own identity with the individualistic pursuits of a music scene that has turned local artists into worldwide superstars.

Athens' ever-thriving music scene fostered world-wide megabands such as R.E.M. and the B-52s. Historic venues such as the Georgia Theatre and the 40-Watt Club make Athens a must-stop for a wide variety of emerging and established stars from Taylor Swift to Snoop Dogg.

#1 College Mascot

Olympians Made Here

The University of Georgia has a strong tradition of producing world-class student-athletes who go on to compete on the world's biggest stage. Georgia volleyball has featured three student-athletes competing in Olympic volleyball action in its history.

Elizabeth Reid (2010-11) became Georgia's first Olympian to compete in volleyball when she represented her home nation of Great Britain when London hosted the Games in 2012. Alexandra Oquendo (2002-05) played for Puerto Rico in indoor and Britta Burthe (2007) played for Germany on the beach in 2016 in the Rio Games.

Before he became head coach of Georgia volleyball, Tom Black was an assistant coach for the USA Women's National Team in Rio. Team USA went on to win the Bronze medal in 2016.

Former Georgia head coach Jim Iams (1989-99) was an assistant coach from 1985-88 for the U.S. Women's Olympic team and an advisor for the 1992 Barcelona and 1996 Atlanta Games.

Long before the volleyball program competed full time in Stegeman Coliseum, the venue was used for preliminary men's and women's volleyball action during the 1996 Atlanta Games. Stegeman also played host to rhythmic gymnastics. Today, spectators coming to Stegeman Coliseum can see the monument dedicated to the University's Olympic athletes outside of the building, which was erected in preparation for the games. The University of Georgia also utilized Sanford Stadium in 1996, hosting soccer matches. History was made in Athens when the U.S. women's soccer team won the gold medal for the first time.

2023 Season Outlook

The 2023 Georgia volleyball season will be the 45th season of women's volleyball in Athens and the seventh under the direction of 2022 SEC Coach of the Year Tom Black.

The Bulldogs are coming off a fantastic season in 2022 that saw Georgia advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 1995 season. Georgia concluded the season 23-8 with a 13-5 record and third-place finish in SEC play. Kacie Evans became the fourth Bulldog in program history to garner AVCA All-America honors while Sophie Fischer was an honorable mention from the All-America committee. Both earned All-SEC honors as well.

Georgia's 2023 roster features 10 returners, five of which (plus a starting libero) were starters from the 2022 squad. On the offense, Georgia returns 73 percent of its kills total and 65 percent of its total service aces from last season. Evans led both categories for the Bulldogs last season with 489 kills and 46 aces.

The outside will be led by Evans and will see time from sophomore Estelle Haugen and graduate transfer Erica Staunton from Northeastern. Staunton's veteran status and multi-time All-CAA honors will bring experience and leadership to the Georgia offense in 2023.

On the opposite pin, sophomore Tori Harper will look to bolster her spot after appearing in 111 sets as a freshman last year, putting up 98 blocks and 85 kills. She will be joined by grad transfer Krista Blakely from Eastern Michigan on the right side. Like Staunton, who can also play on the right side, Blakely brings four years of collegiate experience to the lineup. Freshman Ally Cavanaugh will look to garner playing time in her rookie campaign on the right side.

Junior setter Clara Brower returns for her third season in Athens running Bulldogs' offense. She and Alexa Fortin ran a 6-2 offense much of the season a year ago. Brower will be joined by freshman setter Kaiya Tyson who brings international experience to the lineup from Canada where she competed for Team Canada in the U18 Volleyball World Championship and U19 Pan American Cup.

On the defensive side of the ball, 77 percent of Georgia's blocking production is back on the front row led by an SEC-best 183 total blocks from Fischer.

Joining Fischer in the middle is returner Mackenzie Norris who saw her playing time go up last season from 19 sets in 2021 to 89 in 2022, registering nearly a block per set in her second season of action. After redshirting in 2021, Kaitlin Fournier saw limited action last year, but could see significant playing time in the middle for the Bulldogs in 2023. Freshman Ceci Gooch will back up the middle and will look to earn playing time this season.

Junior Bailey Cox was Georgia's starting libero in all 31 matches in 2022, putting up 3.54 digs per set. Senior Mallory Downing along with Cox and Evans combine for 53 percent of Georgia's returning dig total alone. As a team, 75 percent of the Bulldogs' total digs return this season. Downing appeared in the back row in all but one set last season as a defensive specialist. Ana Julia Bleeker's rookie season was cut short due to a shoulder injury, but she's back for her redshirt season. The back row will also be bolstered by freshman Makena Lim.

2023 SCHEDULE

The 30-match schedule features 12 non-conference matches and 18 SEC matches. 11 opponents appeared in the 2022 NCAA Tournament while Georgia will play six matches against five teams that finished in the Top 25 a season ago: No. 3 San Diego, No. 12 Florida, No. 14 Kentucky, No. 16 Georgia Tech, and #25 Arkansas.

Georgia begins the season at Ramsey Aug. 25-27 hosting UConn, Western Carolina, and Florida State. In week three, Georgia will host its second tournament, welcoming Jacksonville, Army, and Samford to Ramsey Sept. 7-8.

Non-conference road tournaments include three matches at Coastal Carolina Sept. 1-2, taking on North Florida, TCU, and the host Chanticleers. Non-conference action concludes in Atlanta at the Georgia Tech tournament Sept. 15-17 taking on the host Yellow Jackets, San Diego, and Howard.

The 2023 SEC schedule begins Sept. 24 at Florida in Gainesville. Georgia will host Kentucky Sept. 29 in Athens in the SEC home opener.

Georgia's home SEC matches include Kentucky (Sept. 29), LSU (Oct. 15), Ole Miss (Oct. 18), Auburn (Oct. 27), Mississippi State (Oct. 29), Arkansas (Nov. 1), South Carolina (Nov. 17), Alabama (Nov. 19), and Missouri (Nov. 25).

The Bulldogs will hit the road for conference matches at Florida (Sept. 24), Auburn (Oct. 1), Mississippi State (Oct. 6), South Carolina (Oct. 11), Texas A&M (Oct. 22), Missouri (Nov. 5), Tennessee (Nov. 10), Kentucky (Nov. 12), and LSU (Nov. 22).

HEAD VOLLEYBALL COACH

19TH SEASON OVERALL (342-190)
SEVENTH SEASON AT GEORGIA (100-75)

Head women's volleyball coach Tom Black will be in his seventh season at the helm of the Georgia volleyball program in 2023. Black was named the seventh head coach in the history of Georgia volleyball on December 22, 2016.

The Bulldogs reached new heights in 2022, concluding the season 23-8 overall. 22 regular season wins was the most since 2013. Georgia's 13-5 SEC record was good enough for a third-place in the league, Georgia's best finish since 1995 and the most SEC victories in program history. The feat earned Black 2022 SEC Coach of the Year. 2022 was the third season the Bulldogs eclipsed the 20-win mark in six seasons under Black (2017, 2019, 2022). Georgia was picked to finish ninth by the league's head coaches prior to the season after finishing 12-17 in 2021 and 7-9 in SEC play. The season featured a marquee victory over No. 11 Florida in a sweep in Gainesville.

The season concluded with Georgia's 11th appearance in the NCAA Tournament, drawing eighth-seeded Towson in the opening round. The Bulldogs defeated the Tigers in four sets, Georgia's first NCAA postseason victory since 1995. Georgia fell to top-seeded Texas in the second round in Austin to bring an end to the season.

The 2022 campaign saw senior Kacie Evans become the fourth Bulldog in program history to earn AVCA All-America status, landing a spot on the third team. Junior Sophie Fischer was an All-America honorable mention. Evans and Fischer each earned AVCA Southeast All-Region Team and All-SEC honors. It was the first time since 1995 that two Georgia Bulldogs (Hadli Anstine, Nikki Nicholson) earned All-Region honors in the same season. Evans became the first Bulldog to be named a two-time All-SEC player since Valentina Gonzalez in 2009 and 2010.

Additional honors in 2022 included Sage Powell's third appointment to the SEC Volleyball Community Service Team as well was being awarded the SEC Brad Davis Community Service Award. Meghan Froemming and Bailey Cox also garnered CSC Academic All-District honors in the classroom.

Black and the Bulldogs concluded the 2021 season 12-17 overall and 8-10 in SEC play. Following a tough non-conference slate, Georgia went on to earn conference victories over Texas A&M, Auburn, Ole Miss, and LSU including series sweeps of Missouri and Alabama. The Bulldogs' eight SEC wins finished eighth in the league in 2021. Georgia's schedule finished 35th in strength of schedule in 2021, one of the toughest among SEC opponents, playing six ranked opponents. At the service line, Georgia continued to shine in 2022, ranking second in the SEC with 1.46 aces per set and 167 total aces, led by Amber Stivrins' 47 aces on the season.

The 2020-21 season featured a conference-only slate of 22 matches. The Bulldogs split the fall portion of the season, going 4-4. A milestone victory came on Nov. 21 in Gainesville, Florida when the Bulldogs defeated then-No. 5 Florida in four sets. Not only was it the first win against Florida since 2008, it was the first win in Gainesville since 1986, and the first win over a top-10 opponent since the same win against Florida in 2008 when the Gators were ranked No. 8. It became the program's highest-ever ranked win and first over a top-5 opponent.

Georgia concluded the 2020-21 campaign 8-14. Black and the Bulldogs finished the season on a high note winning three of their last four matches of the season including taking two against Ole Miss in the final home series. Phoebe Awoleye was tabbed All-Freshman Team by the SEC. Awoleye finished fifth in the league with 1.05 blocks per set. She became the third All-Freshman Team pick of Black's tenure at Georgia. As a team, the Bulldogs' blocking game saw its best performance under Black's guidance in 2020-21, finishing the season with 2.25 blocks per set, ranking fourth in the SEC.

Black guided the Bulldogs to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2019 since Georgia's most previous trip in 2013. Georgia concluded the season with a 20-10 record overall and a 12-6 clip in Southeastern Conference play. It was the second time Georgia eclipsed the 20-win mark under Black. The last time the Bulldogs had a pair of 20-win seasons in three years was 1995 and 1997.
Led by 2019 SEC Freshman of the Year Kacie Evans, the Bulldogs finished third in the league in kills per set (13.83) and hit .232 as a team. All-SEC setter Meghan Donovan dished out 1,271 assists. Donovan, along with Kendall Glover, became the newest members of Georgia's 1,000-Dig Club in 2019. Junior Rachel Ritchie notched her 1,000th kill in 2019, becoming the 18th member of Georgia's 1,000-Kill Club. The season was highlighted by a road victory over No. 12 Kentucky. A six-match SEC winning streak, including the win over the Wildcats, was the longest in league play by Georgia since 2008. Georgia earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and drew Cal Poly at No. 3 Stanford. The Bulldogs took a 2-0 lead on the Mustangs but fell in five sets in the First Round.

Off the court, the Bulldogs were just as strong in the classroom during the 2019-20 year. The team earned its first AVCA Team Academic Award and was recognized by the NCAA in the annual NCAA APR report. Seven members of the team earned spots on the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll and all four members of the freshman class appeared on the SEC First Year Academic Honor.

The 2018 season saw the Bulldogs finish over .500 for the second-straight season. The 2017 and 2018 seasons were the first back-to-back winning seasons since 2008 and 2009. Georgia concluded the 2018 campaign with a 15-14 overall record. The season began on a seven-match winning streak capped by a four-set victory over No. 24 Colorado on the Buffs' home court. It was the first win over a ranked opponent since 2013. The non-conference slate ended with a 9-2 record.

In February 2019, Black was named the head coach of the Canadian Women's National Team. Volleyball Canada won the FIVB Women's Challenger in Lima, Peru in June, qualifying for the Nations League Tournament in 2020. Black stepped down from the position at the end of 2020 to focus on Georgia and the Spring 2021 season.

In his first season at the helm, Black took a Georgia team that had one Southeastern Conference win in two seasons to a fifth-place finish in the league. The Bulldogs concluded the 2017 campaign with a 22-12 overall record and a 10-8 SEC clip. Finishing fifth, the Bulldogs clinched an automatic bid to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC), advancing to the semifinal round.

Under Black's instruction, the 2017 team finished second in the SEC in kills per set (13.75), fourth in hitting percentage (.243), and first in aces per set (1.57). In all, the Bulldogs finished in the top four of every offensive category in the conference. In RPI, Georgia made one of the greatest turnarounds from the prior season, jumping 132 spots to 57.

BEFORE GEORGIA

Black, an accomplished collegiate and international coach, was named the seventh head coach of the Georgia volleyball program in December of 2016.

Black came to Athens with 12 years of NCAA collegiate head coaching experience with time at UC San Diego and Loyola Marymount, accumulating a career record of 242-115 after posting six seasons with 20-plus wins.

Working with some of the top athletes in the country, Black was extremely active with the U.S. Women's National Team, working alongside U.S. head coach Karch Kiraly. Black most recently served on the staff at the 2016 Rio Olympic Games as an assistant coach, as the United States garnered a bronze medal.

Black spent seven seasons at Loyola Marymount in Los Angeles, leading the Lions to 127 wins and three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the Sweet 16 in 2015 after upsetting No. 13 Colorado State and No. 6 Stanford. His team notched back-to-back 20-wins seasons in 2014 and 2015. In 2014, the Lions entered the AVCA Top 25 Poll at No. 23 and held a national ranking for five weeks.

During his stint, 21 student-athletes earned All-West Coast Conference honors while he oversaw four AVCA All-America selections and six AVCA All-Region picks. Black saw one of his players earn the WCC Defensive Player of the Year in four of the last six years while also garnering AVCA Region Freshman of the Year in 2014.

Prior to LMU, Black served at the helm of Division II UC San Diego women's team for five seasons. Black went 115-29 with the Tritons and had his team ranked in the AVCA national poll every week for his final four seasons. UCSD ranked as high as No. 2 in 2009 while finishing in the top 10 in two seasons. The 2006 Tachikara/AVCA D-II Pacific Region Coach of the Year, Black coached 20 All-Conference honorees as well as four All-America selections.

Black's involvement with the U.S. Women's National Team culminated in his selection as an assistant coach with the team in March of 2013. Black was with the team at the 2016 Rio Olympics, helping guide the United States to a bronze medal. Black also assisted with Team USA prior to the team winning its first world championship gold medal at the FIVB World Championship in October 2014 while the team went on to win the 2015 World Grand Prix Championship and a Bronze Medal at the World Cup.

Before being named as an assistant within the program, Black spent three summers as a consultant coach as the National Team prepared for the 2012 London Games.

Prior to his time at UCSD, Black spent two seasons as an assistant coach for the men's volleyball program at USC. He also served as the men's head coach at Pierce Junior College and Thousand Oaks High School as well as an assistant for Pierce Junior College's women's team and Royal High School's boy's team.

Black received his bachelor's degree in political science from UCSD in 1996 where he was also a four-year letterwinner, setting numerous hitting records and earning All-MPSF honorable mention honors as a senior in 1996. The California native was Volleyball Magazine's Small College Player of the Year in 1996, while also earning Small College All-America honors that same year.

Black and his wife, Crystal, have two daughters, Kylin and Emerson.

AARON Benning

ASSISTANT COACH
SEVENTH SEASON
CAL STATE EAST BAY, 2014

Assistant coach Aaron Benning is in his seventh season with the Georgia volleyball program in 2021. Benning joined the Georgia staff in January 2017 as an assistant coach. Among Benning's many responsibilities, he also heads up Georgia's recruiting efforts.

Georgia's best-ever season at the service line since Benning's arrival in Athens came in 2022, registering 1.77 aces per set, the second best in the SEC. The Bulldogs finished 16th nationally and first in the SEC in total aces (212). Already one of the best servers in the SEC, All-American Kacie Evans elevated her serve, registering 46 total aces and a 0.39 set average in 2022, finishing second in the SEC. Amber Stivrins also finished top 10 in the league with a 0.32 clip.

Benning's efforts on the recruiting trail brought 2022 All-America honorable mention Sophie Fischer to Athens. In her first season in the Red & Black, Fischer finished as the top blocker in the SEC and third-best in the country (1.55 blocks/set). Her 183 total blocks was second nationally and finished third in a single season at Georgia.

The Bulldogs' strong efforts on the service line continued to improve in 2021, registering 1.46 aces per set as a team, ranking second in the SEC. Georgia's 167 total aces also ranked second in the league. Stivrins finished the season second in the league with 0.42 aces per set and atop the SEC with a total of 47 aces to her name.

In the 2020-21 season, the Bulldogs concluded the season sixth in the SEC with 1.30 aces per set. Brynn Chandler tallied 25 aces on the season while Evans tallied 22. Middles Sage (Naves) Powell and Phoebe Awoleye combined for 177 kills for the offense. Awoleye picked up SEC All-Freshman Team accolades in 2020.

Georgia's serving game flourished under Benning's tutelage in 2019, finishing in the top three in the SEC for the third-straight season. Georgia concluded the season with a 1.47 aces per set average. Chandler ranked fifth in the league with 0.31 aces per set. Chandler and Evans each tallied more than 30 total aces in 2019.

The Bulldogs appeared in the NCAA Tournament in 2019 for the first time since 2013. It was the second time Georgia eclipsed the 20-win mark, finishing 20-10. The last time Georgia had a pair of 20-win seasons in three years was 1995 and 1997.

In his first three seasons with the Georgia staff, Benning coached the service game to ranking in the top three in the SEC. Georgia led the league in 2017 with 1.57 aces per set, finishing 25th in the country. In 2018, the Bulldogs ranked third in the conference with a 1.48 clip.

The 2017 and 2018 seasons saw Georgia finish above the .500 mark in both seasons, the first time since 2008 and 2009. In 2017, Benning's first season, the Bulldogs made a jump of 132 places in RPI from the previous season to 57.

Benning previously served in the same capacity for three seasons at Loyola-Marymount on Tom Black's staff. Prior to LMU, Benning served as the Director of Sports for City Beach Volleyball Club since 2004, and spent a total of seven years, including three as head women's volleyball coach at Ohlone College.

While at LMU, Benning helped the Lions to two NCAA appearances, including a trip to the Sweet 16 after upsetting nationally-ranked Colorado State and Stanford in Palo Alto, California. In addition to LMU's NCAA showings, Benning assisted in notching a pair of 20-win seasons. The 24 wins LMU recorded in 2015 were the most for the program since collecting 26 in 2003. That same season, LMU finished third in the West Coast Conference, another best for the team since 2003. Benning saw LMU roll in accolades during his three years, including four AVCA All-America selections, six AVCA All-Region picks, an AVCA Region Freshman of the Year and 11 All-Conference honorees along with the Defensive Player of the Year in 2016.

Benning helped City Beach win nine Junior National Medals and over 180 Regional and National Tournaments. Consistently one of the top-25 volleyball clubs in the nation, Benning guided over 155 of his City Beach players into collegiate volleyball programs since 2006. In addition to coaching, Benning was responsible for many of the management and executive functions.

Benning, a graduate of Yerba Buena High School in San Jose, California, earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Recreational Management from Cal State East Bay in 2014.

ERIN "EJ" Johnson

ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON
ILLINOIS, 2013

Erin "EJ" Johnson joined Tom Black's staff in Athens in Jan. 2023 as an assistant coach.

Johnson comes to Athens following a stint as assistant coach for the UC Irvine men's volleyball program, a position she has held since Jan. 2019.

"We are thrilled to welcome Erin to our staff," Black said. "Her combination of character, intelligence, and coaching ability is rare, and it will be a joy to watch her pour into the development of our student-athletes. I want to thank David Kniffin for his support of Erin and her career. We think the world of him and the UCI men's program. Who they are as a program and what they've accomplished was a major reason Erin was such a compelling candidate for us. She is an incredible addition to our program, and we cannot wait to get her to Athens."

The Anteaters won 43 matches in Johnson's tenure in Irvine. She was the third woman to serve as an assistant coach for the Anteaters men's team.

In Johnson's first season, the Anteaters led the Big West and finished eighth in the country with 2.54 blocks per set average. The shortened 2020 season saw UCI register a 2.81 blocks per set clip in 17 matches, the second highest nationally. A season ago, UCI put up a 2.22 average, good for 12th nationally.

Before landing her first full-time collegiate coaching job, Johnson served as a student assistant coach for the University of Illinois while she completed her degree, graduating in 2013 with a degree in Kinesiology.

Johnson played middle blocker for the Illini from 2009-12. She was a junior on the 2011 Illini team that advanced to the NCAA Championship match. Illinois also made Sweet 16 appearances in 2009 and 2010.

The Crystal Lake, Illinois native played 125 matches over her four-year career and currently ranks sixth all-time in career block assists with 445 and eighth in total blocks (471). She was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team in 2009 as well as Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week, Big Ten Freshman of the Week, and to several all-tournament teams throughout her career. She was also a three-time Big 10 All-Academic honoree.

Following Illinois, she played professionally for Asko Linz Steg in Linz, Austria (2014) and Dresden Sports Club in Dresden, Germany (2016-17), and served as the Director of Volleyball Operations and coach of the boy's program at VC United Volleyball Club in Rockford, Illinois (2017-18).

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
DAVID Dantes

SEVENTH SEASON
BOSTON UNIVERSITY, 2007

David Dantes joined the Georgia volleyball staff in 2017, fulfilling the role of Director of Volleyball Operations.

Dantes came to Athens following a six-year stint at the University of California as the Golden Bears' Director of Operations. He served as volunteer coach during the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

The East Bay, California native added professional experience to his resume when he served on the technical support team for the USA Men's National Team at the 2016 Rio Olympics. His responsibilities included a vast knowledge of statistical and video work during the Olympics.

Dantes' second stint in Berkeley came by way of New Haven, Connecticut, where he was an assistant coach for the Yale volleyball program under head coach Erin Appleman. With his help, the Bulldogs finished 2010 with a share of the Ivy League championship, a 12-2 conference record, and an 18-8 overall mark. Dantes served one season as a volunteer assistant in 2009 before he was promoted to a full-time position.

While serving as a volunteer, he was also the head coach of the Yale women's club volleyball team. The club secured its first league title by winning the Northeast Women's League (NWVCL) championship. Dantes' guidance saw the Bulldogs to their first appearance in the NCVF (National Club Volleyball Federation) Division II National Championship tournament where they captured the national title.

During his two seasons as a volunteer assistant coach at Cal, the Golden Bears made history with their first finish as an NCAA semifinalist. The 2007 squad finished ranked No. 4 in the nation during his first season at Berkeley. In 2008, the team earned a No. 6 finish, and reached the regional finals of the NCAA tournament for just the second time in school history.

Dantes earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in political science, with a minor in religion, from Boston University in May 2007. He competed for the Terriers' men's club volleyball team.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA PRESIDENT
JERE W. MOREHEAD

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia President on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, UGA has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and has completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally during President Morehead's tenure, the University completed the most successful capital campaign in its history and established the UGA Innovation District, through which students and faculty partner with industry leaders to create products and enterprises that strengthen Georgia's economy. UGA has increased its research expenditures by more than 50% over the past decade and has been ranked first or second in the U.S. for research-based products reaching the marketplace for the past seven years.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. Demand for a UGA education has more than doubled during the past decade, with a record 43,000 applications submitted for a spot in the incoming Class of 2027.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia for more than 35 years in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative assignments, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

President Morehead currently serves as Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Research Alliance, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and Emory University Candler School of Theology.

He is Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors and a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Committee and NCAA Board of Governors. He previously served as President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee and as a member of the NCAA's Presidential Forum; Working Group on Name, Image, and Likeness; and Federal and State Legislation Working Group. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation Board of Trustees.

In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education. He has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also earned the UGA School of Law's premier honor for alumni, the Distinguished Service Scroll Award.

President Morehead holds a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University and a law degree from the University of Georgia.

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
JOSH BROOKS

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks – 2023 Sports Business Journal Athletic Director of the Year finalist – has led the University of Georgia Athletic Association through historic success since the time of his hiring in 2021.

Georgia finished seventh in the latest LEARFIELD Directors' Cup, marking the school's best finish since 2005 and tying for the fourth-highest ranking in program history. Seventeen of the Bulldogs' athletic programs earned a top-20 ranking, while nine ended the year in the top 10.

The Bulldogs became the first program to earn back-to-back College Football Playoff National Championships. Three of Georgia's athletic teams won SEC titles and five athletes won NCAA individual crowns during the 2022-23 athletics season.

Among notable achievements, the women's soccer and volleyball programs made history as both teams earned bids to their respective NCAA tournaments in the same year for the first time ever. Georgia's track and field programs finished with four top-10 rankings in the indoor and outdoor championships, both men's and women's tennis captured SEC championships, softball finished with a second-place mark in the conference and both golf programs swept team and individual titles at their respective NCAA regionals.

The Bulldogs also posted a record-breaking academic year, setting a new school-high mark with a 3.19 cumulative GPA in 2022-23, breaking the fall GPA record before earning the second-highest spring GPA in school history.

From academic and athletic success to historic fundraising and a multitude of facility projects, Brooks has continued to sustain Georgia's standing as a national powerhouse. The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last two years with $86.4 million raised in 2022 and $97.7 million in 2023.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the brand-new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to the south side of Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million men's and women's basketball weight room as well as expansive updates to Stegeman Coliseum and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

While facility upgrades have been at the forefront, Georgia's emphasis on Name, Image, and Likeness has further enhanced its commitment to the student-athlete experience. Georgia Athletics was one of the first departments to announce a comprehensive NIL program, which provides wide-ranging education, multi-media management tools and brand-building training. The Bulldogs became one of the first schools to build an in-house NIL department with an Athlete Manager to help student-athletes navigate this space.

Under his guidance, Georgia re-branded the mental health and performance department, bringing in a new full-time director and an additional clinical counselor as well as adding sports psychology services for every team. A Diversity, Equity and Inclusion committee was also established as Courtney Gay was hired to lead in the department's DEI efforts.

Brooks' tenure has also included impactful and significant coaching hires, with a pair of national champions in track and field's Caryl Smith Gilbert and soccer's Keidane McAlpine. In 2021, he hired Tony Baldwin to take over the softball program, while Stefanie Williams Moreno and Neil Versfeld were named head women's and men's swimming and diving coaches.

He also hired two prominent coaches to lead the Georgia Basketball programs in Mike White and Katie Abrahamson-Henderson. Following the 2022-23 baseball season, Brooks brought on renowned pitching coach Wes Johnson to lead Georgia Baseball.

Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He also served in capacities as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

He and his wife Lillie have become a vital part of the Athens community. On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.

according to Thrillist

Athens' ever-thriving music scene fostered world-wide megabands such as R.E.M. and the B-52s. Historic venues such as the Georgia Theatre (pictured below) and the 40-Watt Club make Athens a must-stop for a wide variety of emerging and established stars.
